

Join Lawrenceburg on June 25th and 26th 2010.

This year's Tennessee State Championship BBQ Cook-Off is set for June 25th and 26th at Rotary Park. The Lawrenceburg Kiwanis Club has hosted this event for 12 years and it has grown from 14 teams on the Public Square to over 80 teams at Rotary Park.

Many of the teams featured on TV compete here in Lawrenceburg. Teams and Judges come from all over the country as far away as California, New York, Texas and Michigan along with several locals. The Cook-Off was proclaimed a Tennessee State Championship by the joint session of the Tennessee House and Senate and Signed by the Governor.

During the event there will be two separate contest going on, a Back Yard Contest and the KCBS (Kansas City BBQ Society) Professional Cook-Off. To go along with the two main contest teams can compete for best sauce, desert, and the always fun Anything Goes.

To go with all the great BBQ there will be music, vendors and magic show just to name a few. Its free to the public and a great family environment so come out and enjoy the sights, sounds and smells.
